

Call for Nominations

Advisory Committee on Group Practice Physicians

Nominations Deadline: Friday, March 4, 2011

The AMA is seeking nominations for the Advisory Committee on Group Practice Physicians. The Committee is comprised of 11 physicians practicing medicine in a medical group or faculty practice setting. The Committee is charged with advising the AMA Board of Trustees and staff on issues that directly affect the group practice community.

The Committee meets twice a year prior to the Annual and Interim Meetings. The AMA reimburses travel and meeting expenses for Committee members. Nominees must be leaders within their group practices, i.e., CEO, COO, board chair, department chair, etc., and active members of the AMA and organized medicine. Candidates must be available to serve a minimum of one two-year term starting July 1, 2011. The Committee charter recommends that an individual should not be a member of more than one AMA Committee or Council.

The Board will review the nominations and appoint new a Committee member(s) during its April Board Meeting. To ensure consideration of your candidate(s), please follow the instructions below.
